Building upon Maharam's material expertise and interest in bringing a fresh perspective to classic textiles, our wool initiative highlights the environmental, aesthetic, and performance benefits of the natural fiber through extraordinary breadth of color and texture. The series celebrates the tactility and nuance of wool with textures ranging from the lightly pressed hand of Beck and Campana to the subtle dimension of Luce. Two felted wools in collaboration with renowned fashion designer Sander Lak—Gemma and its reversible mélange companion Gemma Multi—explore Lak's acute sense of color with an exceedingly soft hand.

Embracing wool's natural performance attributes and reduced environmental impact as a rapidly renewable material, Maharam wools avoid added chemical finishes and incorporates recycled and post-consumer recycled content wherever possible.
